2. In mid-January, [redacted] that tickets issued to Soviet soldiers in December and January included 3 tickets to Wuenstorf bearing

25X1B

Source observed that the soldiers to which these tickets were issued arrived at Strausberg with light baggage and were quartered in the barracks installation on Kloster Strasse. The soldiers picked up material at the depot with which they subsequently returned to their units. At the depot, the soldiers received a baggage ticket after presentation of which, at the Strausberg railroad station, they were issued a railroad ticket to the receiving station mentioned.

3. Between midnight and 1 a.m. on 11 February, 70 to 80 [redacted] trucks, part of them with tarpaulins, were unloaded from two trains or possibly the two parts of one train at the loading ramp at Strausberg railroad station. The trucks left for an installation south of Strausberg. Sentries and soldiers observed wore fur clothing, making identification of their service color impossible.³
